KUANG-CHOU REGULATIONS CONTROL RESIDENTS -- Ta Kung Pao, 4 Dec 49

Kuang-chou, 3 December -- Temporary regulations, restricting the movement of residents in Kuang-chou for the purpose of safeguarding life and property and suppressing subversive activities, were announced today by the Kuang-chou Public Security Bureau. These regulations, applicable to all residents with the exception of foreigners, read in part as follows:

1. All residents will be required to register with the Public Security Bureau or its branch offices.
2. Each pao-chia will be given 7 days from the date of this announcement to investigate and register all residents, whether old or new, in its area. Persons with more than one residence will indicate one as his permanent place of abode and the others as lodging places.
3. Newcomers to Kuang-chou, especially those from KMT areas, will be required to show their travel or exit permits obtained from their place of origin. They will also be required to apply for resident permit.
4. Anyone planning to move or leave Kuang-chou will be required to report such intention to the Public Security Bureau and to apply for an exit or moving permit.
5. All changes, such as births, deaths, etc., within a household must be reported in detail.
6. Violators of these regulations will be prosecuted in accordance with the law.

PUBLIC SECURITY SCHOOL RECRUITS STUDENTS -- Ta Kung Pao, 22 Nov 49

Kuang-chou, 21 November -- An announcement stating that 500 qualified male and female students will be accepted for the new term at the Kwangtung Provincial Public Security Cadre School was recently announced by T'an Cheng-wen (Ueda: 11172, 4235, 4321) head of the school. According to the announcement, the students who are accepted will be given training in political affairs and security techniques for 3 to 6 months and upon graduation will be assigned to different localities depending upon their capabilities.

An applicant must be between 18 and 28 years of age, of sound mind, good character, and willing to devote himself to public service. The period of application has been set from 20 November to 8 December 1949, and all applications for admittance must be accompanied by a recommendation from an organized people's group, such as labor unions, Communist Party, student unions, etc. The entrance examination is to be based on an oral examination on political affairs and physical endurance tests. Those who are accepted will be given uniforms, room, and board for the duration of their study.

ACTIVITIES TO BE INTENSIFIED -- Ta Kung Pao, 1 Dec 49

Nan-ching, 2 December (HCNA) -- The first conference of the public security forces of Nan-ching and adjacent areas was convened at Nan-ching between 19 and 21 November to discuss past activities and formulate plans.

Addresses were given before the conference by Yuan Chung-hsien (Ueda: 10661, 200, 11397), commander of the Nan-ching Garrison Headquarters and concurrently conference chairman, and Lung Ch'ien (14876, 6548), chief of the Nan-ching Public Security Bureau. Both speakers stressed the need for all members to be more aware of their responsibilities to curb the rising number of crimes, such as armed robberies, counterfeiting, subversive activities, etc., which numbered more than 1,300 during the 6 months ending in October 1949.

In addition to formulating plans for improving the efficiency of its members, the conference adopted resolutions (1) to conduct more thorough investigation by means requiring residents to register, and (2) to establish a central liaison committee and office to coordinate the work of the public security forces.

STUDENTS VOLUNTEER TO AID PUBLIC SECURITY -- Ta Kung Pao, 28 Nov 49

Kuang-chou, 27 November -- Ho Hsi-ch'uan (250, 12526, 589), of the Kuang-chou Students Union, revealed today that more than 500 students have organized themselves into inspection corps to assist the Public Security Bureau in maintaining vigilance against the subversive activities of reactionary elements.
